ELEMIS JASMINE LULUR RITUAL

This traditional ceremony of spice and yogurt body polishing has been practiced in the palaces of Java since the 17th Century as a daily ritual to smooth and polish the skin of royalty. Today, the Javanese Lulur is usually carried out each day for 40 days prior to the bride and groom's Wedding Day. This Cleansing ritual follows the Javanese belief that they will present each other on their wedding day as fresh and innocent as the flowers used in the treatment
